

CHARGEURS and Rothschild Martin Maurel have signed on February 25 a revised liquidity contract.

This new liquidity contract has been entered into further to changes in regulation regarding liquidity contracts, and inter alia decision of the French financial market authority (AMF) no. 2018-01 of 2 July 2018, applicable from 1 January 2019. It supersedes and replaces the previous liquidity contract entered into with Rothschild Martin Maurel on May 9, 2016.

Transactions under the liquidity contract will be traded on Euronext Paris trading platform.

As per the liquidity contract, cases or conditions leading to its suspension or termination are as follows:

Operations under the liquidity contract may be suspended in the cases provided for in article 5 of the AMF decision, and, upon request by Orange, for technical reasons such as the accounting of shares having voting rights before any shareholders general meeting or the accounting of shares before they are traded ex-dividend.

This liquidity contract may be terminated:

- at any time by CHARGEURS without prior notice;
- or after one month prior notice by Rothschild Martin Maurel.

As at February 25, 2019, the following assets appeared on the liquidity account:

- 1,311,345 euros;
- 21,600 CHARGEURS shares.
